Dianna,
your a real sweet person. I hope the best always comes to you. We've got to study so hard on our shorthand and accounting that I'm suprized you can put up with me sitting next to you in accounting asking you a book of questions. Well, I guess I'll see ya next year - but maybe we'll be a little more advanced in Shorthand!
God Bless you
Love you,
Kim Delph "81"

Diann,
I haven't known you for very long but from what I do know (of you) you have a great personality and I am sure you will succeed in the real world.
Good luck to ya.

Open all your senses
Look at FHS.
Look not at the long silent corridors
Or the rooms of empty desks.
Because you may return someday.
And these things will be as they have always been.
Look at the people who fill FHS:
Experience them
For the here and now in which we live
Will slip away from us
Never to come again.
Experience the emotions that are a part of FHS:
The joy, the fear, the confusion,
The spirit, the anticipation and
Togetherness,
The smiles and tears which have
Become part of our everyday lives.
Cherish every moment you spend at FHS
For time is running out
And FHS, with its hectic classes
And crowded hallways
Will soon become just a memory.
Though you may grow away from FHS,
A part of you will always remain here,
And a part of FHS will forever be a part of you,
Locked fondly inside your heart.

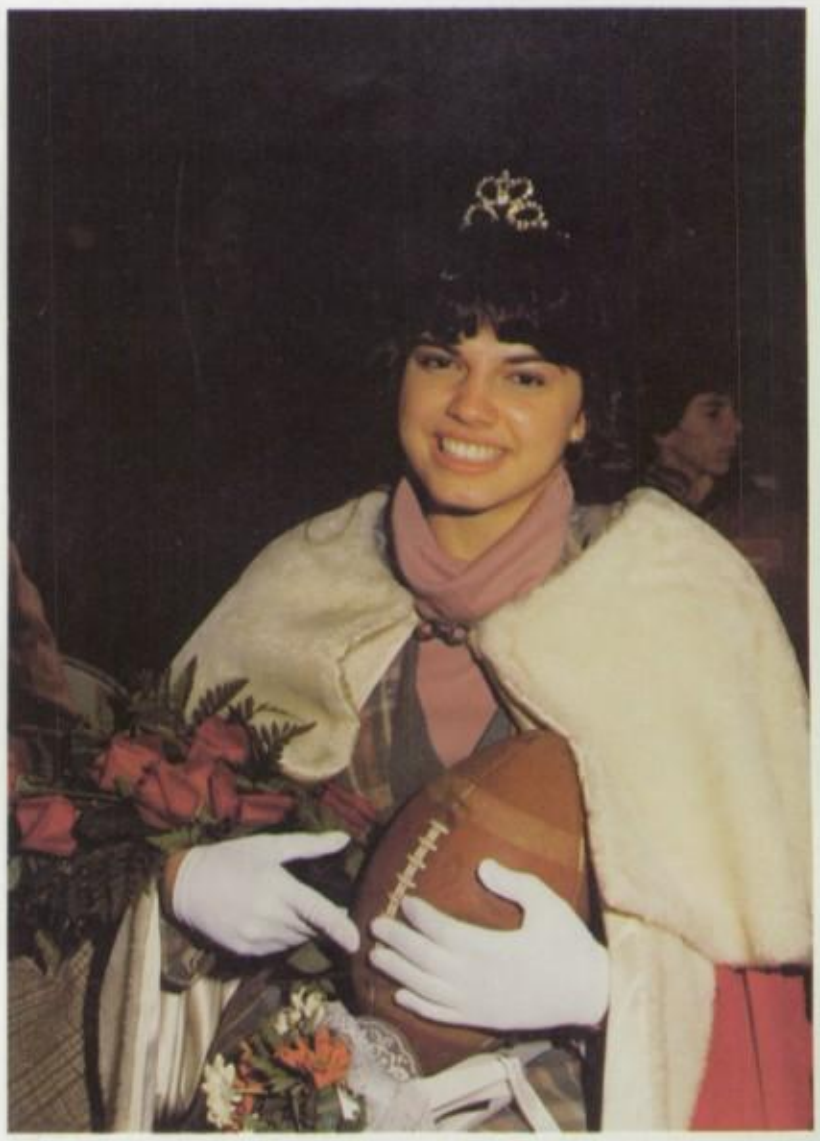
Homecoming Festivities 1978



This year's Homecoming Festivities began on Friday, October 27, with the annual parade to the stadium preceding the game. The newly crowned 1978-79 Homecoming Queen Miss Sheila Holbrook looked on with the rest of her court as the Fairfield Indians toppled the Taft Tigers by a score of 20 to 7. During the game, the class of '79 was announced as the winner of the float competition for the second successive year. "Over the Rainbow" was the theme for Saturday Night's dance. The band "Axix" provided the entertainment.

The Fairfield Dance Line led by Captain Nancy Lewis has had an outstanding year. They captured the "Outstanding Auxiliary Unit" trophy at the University of Cincinnati Bearcat Marching Band Invitational, the first trophy of its kind ever won by an FHS Dance Line.

During the Drill Team Indoor Competition Season, the team took first place honors at both the Tipp City Invitational and the Oakhills Invitational, and they won the fifth place trophy at the Worthington Invitational. The highlight of the season came when the team took second place at the Buckeye Drill Team State Championships at Otterbein College. Also at this N.D.T.A.-sanctioned competition, Captain Nancy Lewis was named Best Captain in the recorded music division. Quite a list of achievements for the first F.H.S. Dance Line to ever compete at State.

The 1978-79 Warrior Staff sponsored a King of Hearts Dance during February. A list of Senior Guys was distributed to Seniors who selected the finalists selected for the court. Jars with each guy's name and picture placed in the front hall during lunch breaks for a week. Students placed their pennies into the buckets, a penny counting for a vote. The Senior guy at the end of the week with the most votes was named King of Hearts. Contest winners, Ron Freybrg and Rusty Hubbard were presented at the Sweetheart Dance on Fri., 16 Feb.

Flower Sale 1979

Senior Day—1979

Last Senior Day—Ever

May 23rd marked a day that all members of the class of 79 will never forget. The traditional "Senior Night" turned out to be one of the worst stunts anyone has ever pulled on the school. Seniors, underclassmen, and alumni aided in the devastation of school and community property. $10,000 damage and much embarrassment were the final results which turned into an extra week of school for the seniors.

Looks Like We Made It!

Opposite Page: Upper: Lisa Haas and Mike Wortley stop dancing for a laughing session; Middle Right: Ron Freyberg (the sex maniac) tries a make shift pair or binoculars; Middle left: A band member stands under the banner "Looks like we made it!" Lower Right: Jenny Kurfiss and Steve Gressel–Where are your hands? Lower Left: Tom Stempfley, Mary Ellen Liles, Mark Stover and Terri Hopton discuss their after-prom plans.

Door prizes were won by: M. Chasteen, D. Sackenheim, L. Cheek, D. Burns, D. Kurzner, G. Pittman, L. Haas; Best Dancers: Tom Stempfley and Debbie O'Donnell; Most Unique: Janae Tibbetts and Dave Kurzner; Best Dressed: Tom Mackendrick and Beth McKinney; Best Matched: Kim Vail and Bob Craft; Prom King and Queen: Rusty Hubbard and Kim Vail.

After Prom—What did you do?

Class of 1979—50th Graduating Class

Last Class of the '70's

We are Sexy, We are fine, We're the class of '79!

Teachers getting involved

Teachers—Students participate together.

The Memories of Fairfield Senior High

Will Linger on and on . . .

The Sad and Serious Moments

The Wild and Crazy Times

The Hopes and the Fears

The Laughter and the Tears

The Times We Have Shared

Will Be Ours to Hold Forever.

Upper Right: Coach Bradbury explains a play during a tense moment.

Middle Right: Students struggle to stay awake during another endless class;
Bottom: Senior Rah ! Senior Rah ! Rah Rah Seniors!

Special new-car services to protect your car's appearance and value

ZEE-GLAZE protection lasts eight times longer than top-selling waxes, seals in new-car color and shine.

Applied to upholstery and carpeting, Fabric Protector keeps spills "on the surface" for easy cleanup.

Protect your new-car investment the professional Zeegard way. Your Zeegard Dealer offers special services to protect both interior and exterior surfaces — for your car's finish. This tough coating bonds to the paint finish and protects it longer than any other coating you've ever tried. In actual tests, ZEE-GLAZE protective gloss was still on the finish after 52 car washes . . . long after the leading waxes and other coatings were gone.

ZEE-GLAZE® PROTECTION

ZEEGARD FABRIC PROTECTOR

for upholstery and carpeting. Stains and spills can't get through this professionally applied protector which puts an invisible shield around each fiber strand.

The 1979 CHIEFTAIN was prepared by the yearbook staff of Fairfield Senior High School, Fairfield, Ohio, and printed by offset lithography by the Intercollegiate Press, Inc., of Shawnee Mission, Kansas.

Senior portraits and faculty portraits were taken by Pogue's Portrait Studios, Tri-County Studios. Underclass photos were taken by Delmar Studios, Charlotte, North Carolina. Activity and group ohotographs were taken by Osborne Photographic Laboratories, Cincinnati, Ohio. Much valuable assistance was provided by Betty Megerle and Cathy Mangino of Osborne Labs. Mrs. Edna Meyer of Pogue's Tri-County shot most of the Senior portraits and did her usually exceptional job. Much assistance with the art work was provided by Jon Payne. Special headlines were prepared by Mrs. Joan Fox, Warrior advisor, and the Warrior staff. Special thanks to Mr. Dan Finfrock for the many excellent photos he shot and to Intercollegiate Press representative Maurice Childs, without whose continued interest and generous assistance and support we would never have finished. And, of course, our thanks to our advisor, Mr. R. Dizney, without whose endless hours of help and advice out yearbook would not be the top quality product it is.
